

Share the fire warmth

The Indigenous Campfire extends a warm welcome from the traditional owners of this land and will be the centre of storytelling, learning and sharing over the winter season. Leempeeyt Weeyn' will burn continuously from August 5-20 in Federation Square, offering a space out of time in the heart of the city. The fire is a symbol of resistance and a place for coming together, artistically and spiritually. Join the warmth of the Campfire on selected evenings in August for a variety of activities, workshops, live music and spoken word performances.

Ecstatic fusion of soul

New Zealand-born songbird Kimbra has just been announced as the latest addition to the impressive 2017 Supersense: Festival of the Ecstatic line-up, taking place at Arts Centre Melbourne August 18 – 20.

Kimbra is a producer, musician and adventurous performer – a musical force innovating the shape of pop today.

After exploding into the public consciousness in 2011 with 'Somebody That I Used To Know', a duet with Gotye that earned her two Grammy Awards for Record of the Year and Best Pop Duo/Group Performance, Kimbra has cemented herself as an unpredictable and genre-defying maverick, fusing R&B and soulful song-writing with modern experiments in electronics, prog and otherworldly pop.

Following the release of two acclaimed albums and a move to New York, she continues to transform her sound, collaborating with the likes of Questlove of The Roots, Bilal and David Byrne, and formed large ensemble improvising collective EXO-TECH with Supersense curator Sophia Brous. Supersense is a contemporary performing arts festival exploring ecstatic experience held throughout Arts Centre Melbourne. Kimbra will bring a special audio-visual electronic setup to the festival, featuring re-imaginings of old songs and debuting new material, showcasing all that is most striking about her prodigious vocal skills, alongside her live electronic and production prowess.

Kimbra joins an extraordinary exclusive program of legendary artists and music pioneers exploring the sublime and supernatural.

The 2017 Supersense festival will be presented over three days of immersive, revelatory performance throughout the Arts Centre Melbourne's labyrinth of underground walkways, venues and performance spaces, with back-to-back performances from some of the world's most visionary artistic pioneers forging new perspectives on ritual and transformation. artscentremelbourne.com.au/supersense