

African Impact

African Impact is Africa's top on-the-ground facilitator of volunteer work, offering a variety of exciting and rewarding volunteer programs suitable for anyone looking to make a real difference during their gap year.

The volunteer projects focus on making a measurable impact on the people and wildlife in Africa, while ensuring volunteers have a safe, adventurous, unforgettable and life-changing experience.

The ultimate aim is to provide a safe and supervised environment within which volunteers are able to make a tangible difference, leaving you with a great sense of satisfaction and memories to last a lifetime!

More than a backpacker

By taking up teaching overseas you'll get an apartment organised for you and a helping hand to begin with in countries such as China, Japan, Brazil, Dubai and Switzerland. Work with amazing and diverse people from all over the world (TESOL teachers come in all different ages and backgrounds). Don't be backpacker saying, "Wow, wish I could stay longer!!". All you need is the TESOL certificate, be proficient in speaking the English language and have a good attitude... that's it.

Work or volunteer

WEP Australia has launched a new range of programs aimed at 18+ participants. Great entry-level prices keep costs down for those who want to spend up to a year working and travelling in the USA, volunteer on a conservation or aid project, teach overseas or take up an internship allied to your course. WEP's 12 months' work & holiday packages to the USA are currently offering great jobs in the hospitality and culinary industries with placements in Lake Tahoe – Nevada and California, the Connecticut coast and other resort areas. Program participants must be enrolled or a recent graduate.
