

New Year in Geelong

Eskimo Joe will rock in the New Year at Geelong's New Year on the Waterfront. Over 5000 fans are expected to flock to Geelong's waterfront for the biggest party in town. Eskimo Joe will be supported by Passionfruit Pulp and Test Pilot Molly with more acts to be confirmed.

Eskimo Joe's album Inshalla was released in May debuting at number one on the Aria charts and going gold in its first week of release. The band is currently touring Germany, Austria and the Netherlands.

Tickets include beer, wine, spirits and finger food, entertainment, two dance marquees with international DJs, a spectacular midnight fireworks display. Guests will dress to impress in formal attire.

New Year on the Waterfront tickets available to purchase for $165 (students and group bookings for $155) through Ticketmaster or via

Good Vibrations 2010

Good Vibrations Festival 2010 will be touring the country and in Melbourne during February with a line up of stars, including Kid Cudi (pictured).

Last year Good Vibrations Festival was a sell out, so organisers are saying to get in early.

The Melbourne will be at the Nursery, Flemington Racecourse on Sunday February 21. Good Vibrations is presented by Jam Music, an independent music company comprising the Good Vibrations Festival, the Chinese Laundry club nights, Jam Touring and Events, and Jam Agency.
