

Did you know your mind wanders

30% of the time?

If psychology interests you, then you may want to pay attention now! The Australian College of Applied Psychology is currently taking enrolments for classes starting in September.

Our smaller class sizes, practical teaching methods, central city location and flexible study options are just some of the many reasons students choose us. And, our courses are recognised by the Australian Psychology Accreditation Council. FEE-HELP available.

Visit our website or come to our Open Day on Sunday 11 August to find out more!

Now offering the Graduate Diploma of Psychological Science

1800 642 142
acap.edu.au

acap
keep learning

Film school

AFTRS – Australia's national screen arts and broadcast school – and one of the top 20 film schools in the world opens its doors on September 7 & 8 to prospective students and the public. If you are keen on studying at one of the best film schools in the world in 2014 – applications are being taken from September 1 until November 1 – or just want to check out the fantastic facilities save these dates: Saturday September 8: 10am-3pm, Sunday September 9: 10am-3pm. Full details: aftrs.edu.au/opendays

Psychology

The Australian College of Applied Psychology (ACAP) is offering the Graduate Diploma of Psychological Sciences on-campus in Melbourne. For students who have an undergraduate degree in another field, and have completed accredited first year psychology units, the graduate diploma takes just one year. Students do second and third year psychology units recognised by the Australian Psychology Accreditation Council. This course provides the foundation for jobs in the health and social welfare areas, social and/or market research, human services, disability and ageing, mental health services, juvenile justice, immigration and refugee support, and indigenous services. Contact 1800 061 199 or visit acap.edu.au